

Belly Cast Art Raffle

DRAWING ON OCTOBER 8, 2010 DURING NATIONAL MIDWIFERY WEEK

The South Carolina ACNM Chapter is offering these two belly casts for raffle to celebrate National Midwifery Week.

Midwives Empowering Women

Here's your chance to own a piece of artwork sure to both inspire and awe. For raffle, we present painted pregnant belly casts that are truly one of a kind! Artist Elizabeth Barnes painted these sensational works on a plaster casting of a pregnant woman's torso. The Zebra is one of Barnes' most popular. The Gustav Klimt reproduction of The Three Ages of Woman was chosen by the midwives in the ACNM spirit of "with women for a lifetime".

Grab a chance to own a fabulous, sure to be talked about work . Or buy a ticket for your favorite midwife, obstetrician, pediatrician, lactation consultant, childbirth educator, doula, nursing instructor, birthing center, call room, nurses station ... Don't miss this opportunity to own a unique piece of art, and support South Carolina Midwives too!
